APAI Day on Saturday

featuring local artists and dancers

Thank you for bringing such an interesting and colorful event to North Regional/Broward College library. I heard a lot of very good feedback from those who attended.

- Hayley J.

A wonderful honor that you deserve for years of putting your heart and soul into APAI. Unfortunately, a personal problem kept me away. However, I am aware of APAI's performance schedule and will see you there. My regards to Dr. Chokshi and a warm hug for you. Whenever you need my help with anything I can do, please call on me.

- Richard

Congratulations! This is really terrific news! I did not know how long APAI had been around.

- Clarence B.

It was touching to see all the history of APAI on the walls of the theater, in the faces of the audience, the music that reverberated in the hall, and in the memories of all the music that has graced our community over the years.

- Fernando S.
