AUGUST 29, 2009 - PROGRAM REVIEWS

Sitar, Sarod and Tabla Concert

Dear Bharti,

To begin with, Minu and I cannot thank you enough for bringing in such a brilliant cultural program to South Florida. We can only imagine the amount of time, efforts, and dedication that you have laid out to make it a success. May Lord Krishna keep you and Dino in good health through a long and prosperous life. On the whole I enjoyed the program very much. Reenaji was outstanding. It was evident she had taken good Talim and done her Riyaz diligently.

The selection of the artists, the sound and the overall management was superb.

Everything was absolutely wonderful! We really appreciated the fact that you started and finished on time.

Well done!

We loved the MUSIC and PERSONALITIES of the artists and the three WONDERFUL instruments. We appreciated the dynamics and emotion of the sarod but at times it was a little too PIERCING in relation to the sitar and tabla. Could that be controlled by the sound technician? We wish you continued success!

Respectfully and Sincerely,

Overall, that was one of the most delightful jugalbundi's I've heard in person. There was such an effortless weaving of the Sitar and Sarod sounds. The way they would leave space for each other to enter and sometimes overlap their entrances was beautiful. The tabla improvisations also added a lot of energy to the performance. Overall an excellent performance which adds to the roster of great performances hosted by APAI.

As usual the program was excellent and well attended. Keep up the great work

The concert was fabulous, I'm sooo glad we went. I was hoping to introduce my family to you. I would rate everything a one ++++++, except the last question #4. (Latecomers DO NOT get seated till intermission). (a sign on the wall to that effect would take care of things delicately). It was very distracting, (and not very fair), to those of us who made it on time and disrespectful to the artists playing their hearts out for us. Anyway, I hope this helps in planning out the next event.

Sincerely,
K. Rajpathak
