AUGUST 3, 2013 - PROGRAM REVIEWS

Music for the Soul

I enjoyed both portions of the concert on Saturday very much, especially Pandit Sanjoy Banerjee's vocal performance and explanations as I do not have much experience listening to performers and teachers in the vocal tradition. I found the performance both intellectually engaging and numinously transcendent. Thank you for all the work you do in bringing these musical experiences to fruition for both the performers and listeners.

Once again, I want to thank you for bringing us such wonderful music. The concert last night was very special, I had never heard this style of singing before. It felt like an honor to be present for this performance. So, quality of the artists: Superb. Pt. Banerjee was masterful, a revelation, a true delight to hear. It was a world-class concert.

Thank you for giving our community yet again another excellent performance sharing Indian culture through music. The quality of the artists was excellent; the sound in the auditorium is very acceptable considering that Broward County does not have enough venues that are cost effective for performances of this type, and I again applaud the APAI management for its excellent professionalism. Everyone I have introduced to APAI performances enjoys them. I look forward to many more rewarding performances with APAI.
