(2) I was honored to speak at the Association of Performing Arts of India, Celebrating the 20th Anniversary performance at the Broward County Main Library Auditorium Yesterday 3/10/18. It was a wonderful performance, with great artists. They performed Bharatnatyam, Kathak, Oddissi, and Kuchipudi styles of dance. The Kuchipudi dance was performed by Dr. Radha Kotamraju Lee and Dr. Reneeta Basu who performed at the Daniel Lewis Dance Sampler in October. Congratulations to Bharti Chokshi for 20 year of service to music and dance of India in South Florida. — with Bharti Chokshi at Broward County Library.

(6) Thank you so much dear APAI, your productions are always lovely & heartfully moving... It would have been even better with live musicians for the dancers but I know that's a much bigger production to organize... Much gratitude for all the work you do to bring these beautiful cultural events to SO FL... All blessings, Namaste,

Grace

(10) Hello Bharti: Thank you for seeking my input. I am unable to fill in my comments as requested in your message. However, know that my comments, along with my wife's are quite favorable. The experience, artistic command and knowledge of the art forms are transmitted into the execution of the performances. Our congratulations to APAI and wish the association continued growth in promoting/fostering an enduring appreciation for our cultural heritage, in this area of the US. Please extend our heartfelt praises to the performing artistes.
