MAY 7, 2011 - PROGRAM REVIEWS

Madhalaya Group

I loved the concert because I love tabla and all percussion. The musicians were masterful and enchanted me so much I bought their CD. The production was excellent.

Also Concerning the venue, the auditorium was too big, making the small turnout seem even smaller. Also, the mandir was very far away for those of us who live in Dade county.

Once again, let me tell you how much I enjoyed the percussion performance you offered at the temple last Saturday, May 7. It was a different kind of concert experience, exposing me to a few instruments I had never seen played before. I have already listened to the CD I bought at intermission, which was excellent. Of course, I always enjoy the more traditional performances with sitar, tabla, etc., as well.

I agree that the Broward Library was an ideal venue--too bad about the unavailability of the room on weekends.

If I get any ideas about other possible venues, etc., I will get in contact with you.

Hello Bharti,

I really enjoyed visiting the temple for the 1st time. Great performance and a very nice performance space. unfortunat about the visa problem, but that turned out to be not as problematic musically as I initially assumed I might be. Although I particularly enjoy Hindustani music, I really appreciate and value the opportunity to hear and better understand a wide variety of Indian classical styles. You've done an excellent job in providing that multi-faceted programming.

Thanks for all you do. Looking forward to the next concert.

Regards and peace,

Lee Byrd

I liked last nights show.
