Bharti,

Yes! The concert was great and I am sorry I did not come back stage. I got caught up in a conversation and forgot. My apologies. In happy to meet anytime, just let me know and I will look at my calendar.

Hi Bharti,

No worries, I'm sure you were busy! My mom, boyfriend and I really enjoyed the performance! It was our first time hearing classical Indian music live.

Thank you Bhartiji for organizing this fabulous event. I am very appreciative of the work APAI does. Sometimes have not been able to make it because of schedule clash! Saw you and Dr. Chokshi but the concert was about to start so did not come over to greet you!

Thanks again!

Dear Bharti,

It was very nice to see you both last evening. We left that beautiful concert in the middle because my wife, who is under cancer treatment, was having difficulty with her cough. So sorry to miss so much of the very promising second half. Thank you for inviting us. Hope Broward Center can fix their sound system.

Take good care,

Manju

My boys and I saw an Indian classical sitar/tabla concert with these incredible musicians at the Broward Center Amature Theatre last night. Thank you Bharti Chokshi and APAI for a memorable evening.

There was audible feedback for a large majority of the time and the amplified balance between the artists was extremely poor. Unfortunately this took away from the overall effect of the performance. Truly not a pleasant experience as a result.
